Customer Bulletin

Bulletin No: 16-0526
Date: May 25, 2016
Attn: Valued OEM Customer
Subject: PM111 Design Change
Effective: 5/26/16

Effective today, Airmar Technology will be making a design change to the PM111LH/LM, PM111LHW, and the R111LH/LM. Going forward, the outer design will not include the external heat sink. The heat sink will be located internally and will not be visible on the transducer face. It is important to note that form, fit and function of this transducer has not changed.

Old PM111

New PM111
